

Official Transcripts from Other Colleges, College Board AP Scores or High Schools

Columbia College requires new students to submit official transcripts of coursework completed at other colleges, College Board AP Scores and high schools. These official documents are evaluated on a first-come, first-served basis and should be received well in advance of your registration date. High school transcripts are required only if you have been out of high school for five years or less.

Request the institution mail your official transcripts to:

Columbia College
Attention: Admissions & Records
